

Marco Rizzo and Francesca Cantone together with the Litigation practice recognized in Chambers Global Guide 2025

Milan, March 5, 2025 – Gitti and Partners is proud to announce a significant achievement: attorneys Marco Rizzo and Francesca Andrea Cantone, partners of the Litigation practice, have been recognized in the prestigious Chambers Global Guide 2025, one of the most authoritative legal directories internationally.

This recognition, the result of a rigorous selection process conducted by Chambers and Partners through thousands of interviews with lawyers and clients worldwide, underscores the excellence and expertise of these two professionals, particularly in the area of Banking & Finance Litigation, Real Estate Litigation and Healthcare Litigation.

Marco Rizzo, head of the Litigation practice at Gitti and Partners, leads the team with a strategic vision and a well-established track record in managing complex disputes, especially in the Banking & Finance sector. With an international reputation and a results-oriented approach, Marco represents financial institutions and major corporate entities in high-stakes proceedings, solidifying his position as a leader in the Italian and global legal landscape.

Francesca Andrea Cantone, a key member of the Litigation team, provides essential contributions to the group through her deep technical expertise and her ability to handle sophisticated financial disputes. Francesca stands out for her skill in advising institutional clients in high-risk situations, combining analytical precision with strategic foresight.

The recognition in the Chambers Global Guide 2025 marks a significant milestone not only for these two professionals but also for the entire Dispute Resolution team at Gitti and Partners, reaffirming its status as a benchmark in both the Italian and international legal markets.

The Chambers Global Guide covers over 200 jurisdictions and is widely regarded as the gold standard for legal rankings, providing an authoritative overview of the global legal market.

Congratulations to Marco Rizzo, Francesca Andrea Cantone, and the entire Dispute Resolution team on this prestigious recognition!
